1 The next item of evidence I reviewed was Item Number 306. This was
2 described as being a pornographic magazine located within a metal
3 brief case in the master bathroom at the Neverland Ranch residence.
4 This periodical was the Volume 7, Issue 2, of "Couples". I
5 reviewed each page of this magazine and did not locate any writings
6 and/ or pictures, which were not an original part of the magazine.
7 The magazine did not depict any illegal activities, including child
8 pornography. Based on my training, this type of material can be 9 used as part of a "grooming" process by which people (those seeking 10 to molest children) are able to lower the inhibitions of their
11 intended victims and facilitate the molestation of said victims.

13 The next item of evidence I reviewed was Item Number 307. This
14 item was described as being a book, which contained nude
15 photographs of men. This item was found in the master bathroom of 16 the Neverland Ranch residence. I found this item to be a hardback
17 book titled Bidgood, authored by James Bidgood. I reviewed each
18 page of this book and did not locate any writings and/ or

Please note: there are no images of the items listed in this report. If you want to see the images, go to the leaked report as published by Radar Online, here (NSFW, possibly disturbing depending on your sensitivity).

Evidence Item #507. Piece of notebook paper, with drawn image of boy inside a circle.

Impressions of writing from words written on other sheets on top of this one in the pad; indecipherable words.

Evidence Item #508. Book with images of 'nude teenagers and/or young adults'

Located in upstairs library area of video/game room. The book was titled, The Fourth Sex: Adolescent Extreme, with no listed author.

The investigator noted that this book focuses on 'adolescents and counter culture,' contained lots of images of semi-clothed or naked 'teenagers and/or young adults' and actually isn't illegal under US law. But, it represents a tool that could be used to 'lower the inhibitions of intended victims' and 'facilitate the molestation of said individuals'.

Evidence Item #509. Book with pictures of nude children.

The hard cover book is titled Cronos, by author Pere Formigeura, contains images of nude children of both sexes, as well as adults. Same location as item #508.

Evidence Item #510. Disneyland plastic bag containing underclothes and bloodied bed linens. The Garden City bag also contained:

- a bright orange pair of shorts, size 4, ‘possibly for a young girl’.
- a new pair of Spiderman socks.
- child-sized, off-white t-shirt.
- pairs of gray, white, and blue child socks.
- a significant amount of clothing for an adult male.

Evidence Item #517. Compact disc.

Contents duplicated at police crime lab, before returned to evidence bag.

Evidence Item #302. Pornographic magazine.

The Best of Club, Issue no. 201. Also suspected by the inspecting officer to be ‘grooming’ materials.

Evidence Item #505. Books with pictures of nude children.

Three books, containing ‘photographs of nude and partially clothed children’. The investigator noted that the books contained images of partially clothed or naked children, as well as images of nude adults with children’s faces morphed on top. This technique may be used to sexualize and lower the inhibitions of a victim, according to the report.

Evidence Item #303. Three books containing nude photographs, including those of teenagers and pre-teenagers.

Naked and semi-clothed images of women ‘in sexually explicit poses,’ as well as naked men as filmed by a gay photographer. One book contained semi-clothed or fully-nude teenagers or pre-teenagers, according to the report.

Evidence Item #304. Two pornographic magazines, two ‘nude art books’

Magazines were Barely Legal and Girls of Penthouse, with one book titled, The Gynoids Genetically Manipulated. That book contained, according to the report, ‘appeared to have a fetish (bondage, Sadomasochism, piercings, etc.) related theme’.

Evidence #309. Black leather laptop bag containing pornographic magazines and DVDs, several sheets of paper.

Of the pieces of paper, one simply contained the words, 'Paris and me'. Another was a Guess ad ripped from a magazine. The DVD was separated into evidence number #309-A. Other items in the bag included a pen, business card from Goldman Sachs, ripped-up fax pertaining to a concert details, batteries, jewelry, children's book, some handwritten notes, and a syringe. It also contained a letter from a counselor at the Gary Community School Corporation, arranging plans to bring children to visit California in the first half of 2004.

Also included were notes between Jackson and Gavin Arvizo, who later accused the pop star of molestation.

The DVDs were the following titles: Michael Ryan's Believe It or Not, which featured hardcore pornography, and Sloppy Dogs Presents: Fuck Me, I'm a Bad Girl.

There were also two issues of Gallery, a pornographic magazine.

Evidence Item #313. Book containing nude photographs.

No images sexually explicit in nature.

Other items described in court filings (contained within the same document stack):

Book: 'Boys Will be Boys,' contains full frontal nudity of boys under the age of 14; personally inscribed by Michael Jackson.

Book: 'In Search of Young Beauty,' containing pictures of children, boys and girls, some nude.

Book: 'The Boy, a Photographic Essay,' containing images of boys, some nude.

Photograph: Noted in the document as 'believed to be Jonathan Spence; fully nude.'

Photograph: young boy holding an umbrella, with bikini bottoms partially pulled down.

Evidence Item #363:

12 pornographic magazines;
